

Mixer Application and Damping Factor Estimation

- The setup demonstrated schematically above should be designed and built by each student.
- The viscous liquid will be supplied to the students during the laboratory time.
- The vessel should be selected to contain max. 100 mL of viscous liquid.
- The setup should be mounted on a base.